

The Campbellsport Firefighter's Memorial located in Fireman's Park is being built to honor those who have served and protected the citizens of Campbellsport and the surrounding area. The walls will list the names of members from the past and the future.

You can support this project by purchasing a personalized paver brick to serve as a lasting tribute to a family, a firefighter, a retired firefighter, in memory of, in honor of, or businesses may purchase a brick with their logo on it to show their support for the memorial.
