

The German Reformed Cemetery

Also known as Auburn Cemetery

From R- 019

Entered on computer by S. Connie Halbur, January, 2005

The following information on burials in the German Reformed Cemetery was found in the Roderick Reese papers, envelope # 19. It is not completely certain that Mr. Reese was the one who researched the cemetery, but if he did not, no name is provided. The lists are typed, and are arranged in alphabetical order, by family. Position of the graves is not given in the record. The date when this record was typed is unknown, but it is certain that there have been burials in this cemetery since 1972, which is the last burial on this list.

The German Reformed Cemetery is in Auburn Township, Fond du Lac County, Section 17. It is about ½ mile east of Campbellsport on County Highway Y.

Explanations of abbreviations and codes:

1. 0000 When the date of birth or the year of death are not known, 0000 are entered.
2. NG (not given) is written when the month and day of death are not known.
3. Reese: The remarks in the notes column are usually those of Mr. Roderick Reese. That is indicated by his name in italics/bold print. If that indication is not there, the notes are those of S. Connie Halbur.
4. [Sic] This indicates that the material was copied as written, even though it appeared to an error.

The burials will be given here in two lists:

- the list as found in R-019, which is basically alphabetical.
- a chronological list
