Brief History of Sacred Heart Parish, Dundee, Wisconsin

Most of the following history is taken from GESCHICHTE DER KATOLISCHE KIRCHE IN WISCONSIN, originally published in 1895. The edition used for this summary is the edition published in German in 1899. The Campbellsport Area Historical Society (CAHS) is fortunate to have a copy of this book.

Translation and summary of history by S. Connie Halbur, October, 2009.

Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish, Dundee, Wisconsin, was located about 5 miles from its mother parish, Our Lady of the Angels, in Armstrong (Osceola). It was founded in 1877 by Rev. Franz Baroffi, and was served and administered by the priest at Osceola. (Armstrong was commonly called Osceola at that time.) It continued to be a mission of Osceola at least until 1899, when GESCHICHTE was published. In 1899, there were about 100 members in the parish. Mass was celebrated there every other Sunday. In 1899 it had a Sacred Heart Society, and there were plans to organize a society in honor of the Blessed Mother as well.

The parish closed in 1923, but it is currently (2009) a part of Shepherd of the Hills Parish in Eden.

Burials in the cemetery have continued up to the present time.
